

Plans for Future Survey Activities

- Districts will review areas where further improvement is needed.
- District champions will work with program area experts on intergovernmental coordination.
- DCEs will communicate with staff/contractors on how to improve access to business during construction and inform the public about the project schedule.
- Conduct another round of survey of government officials later this year.